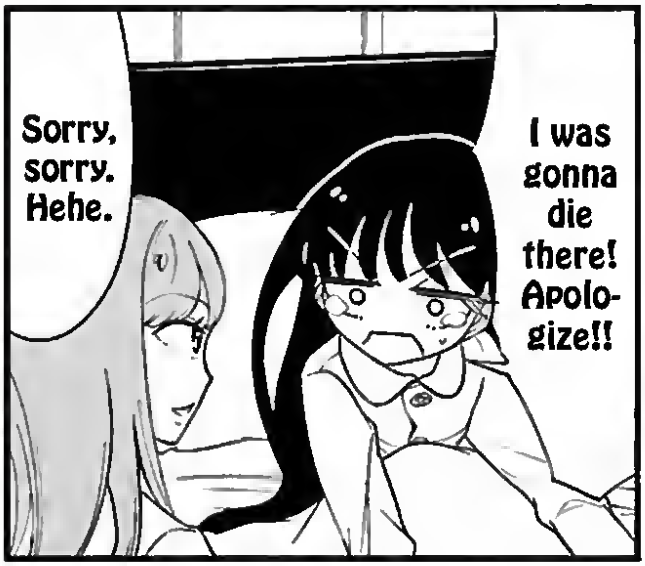
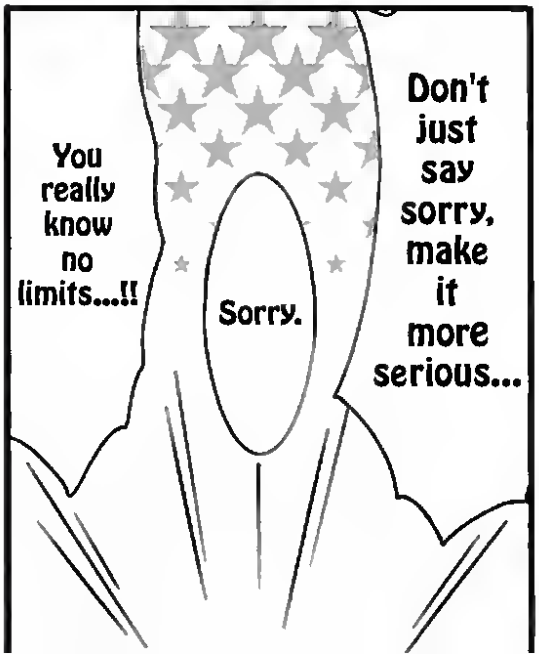
Gasp
You woke up.
Kuhaaaa!!!



Sorry, sorry. Hehe.
I was gonna die there! Apologize!!

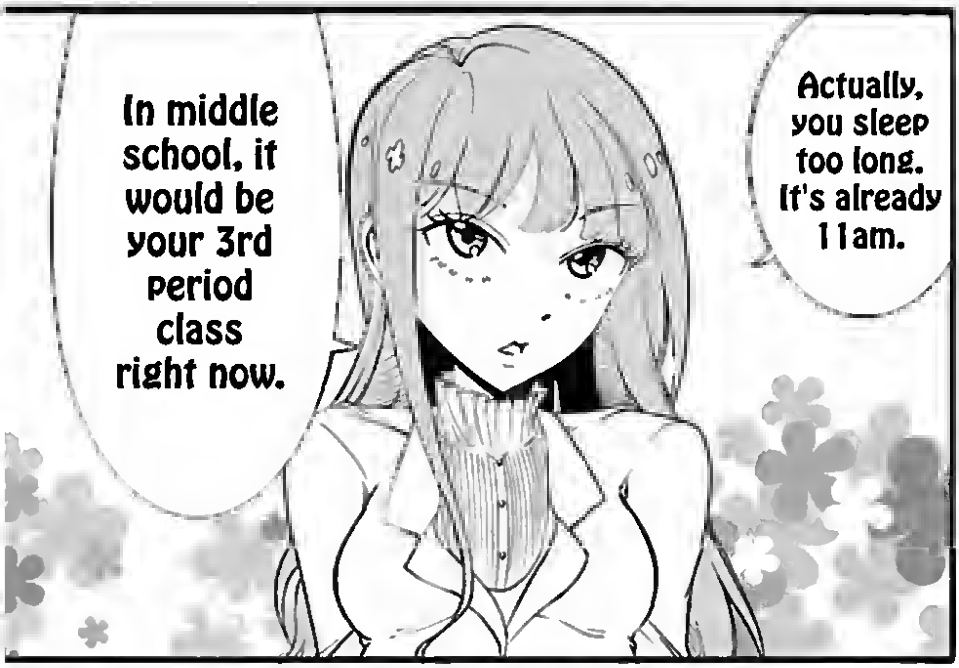
What're you doing? Onee-chan!!! You wanna kill me!?
Because you weren't waking up.

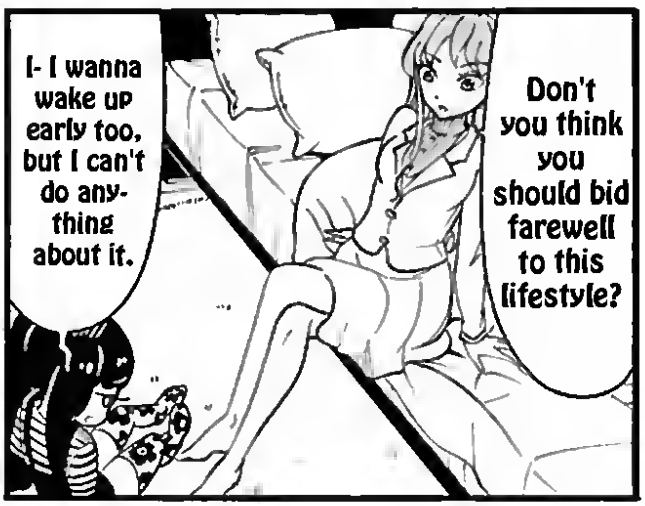


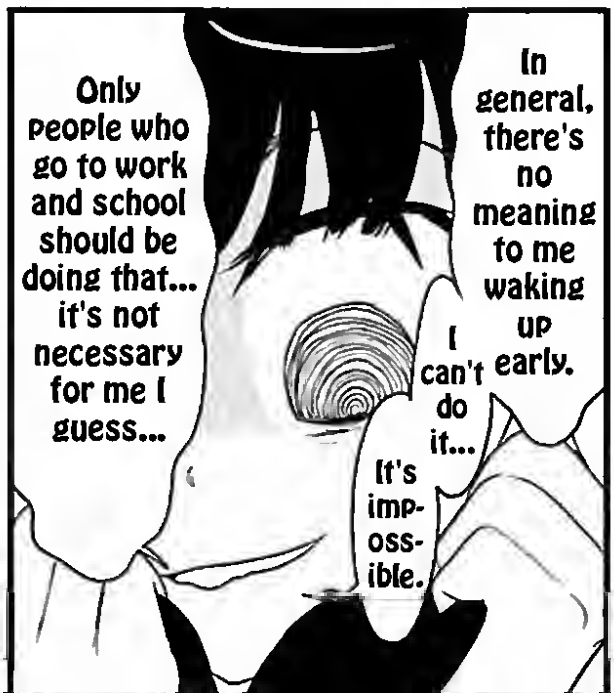
You really know no limits...!!
Sorry.
Don't just say sorry, make it more serious...

Sorry.
What're you laughing about!? Apologize properly!!

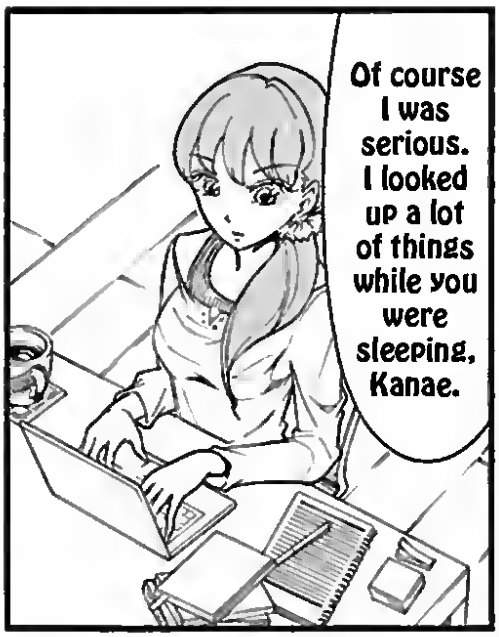
Sleep Breathing







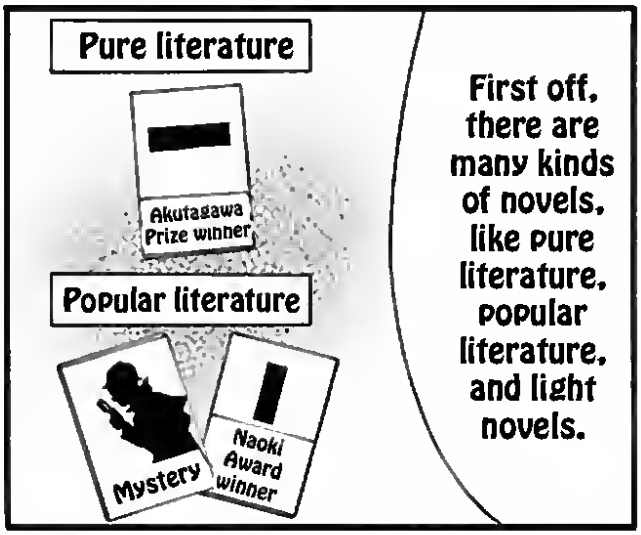
Only people who go to work and school should be doing that... it's not necessary for me I guess...
In general, there's no meaning to me waking up early.
I can't do it...
It's impossible.



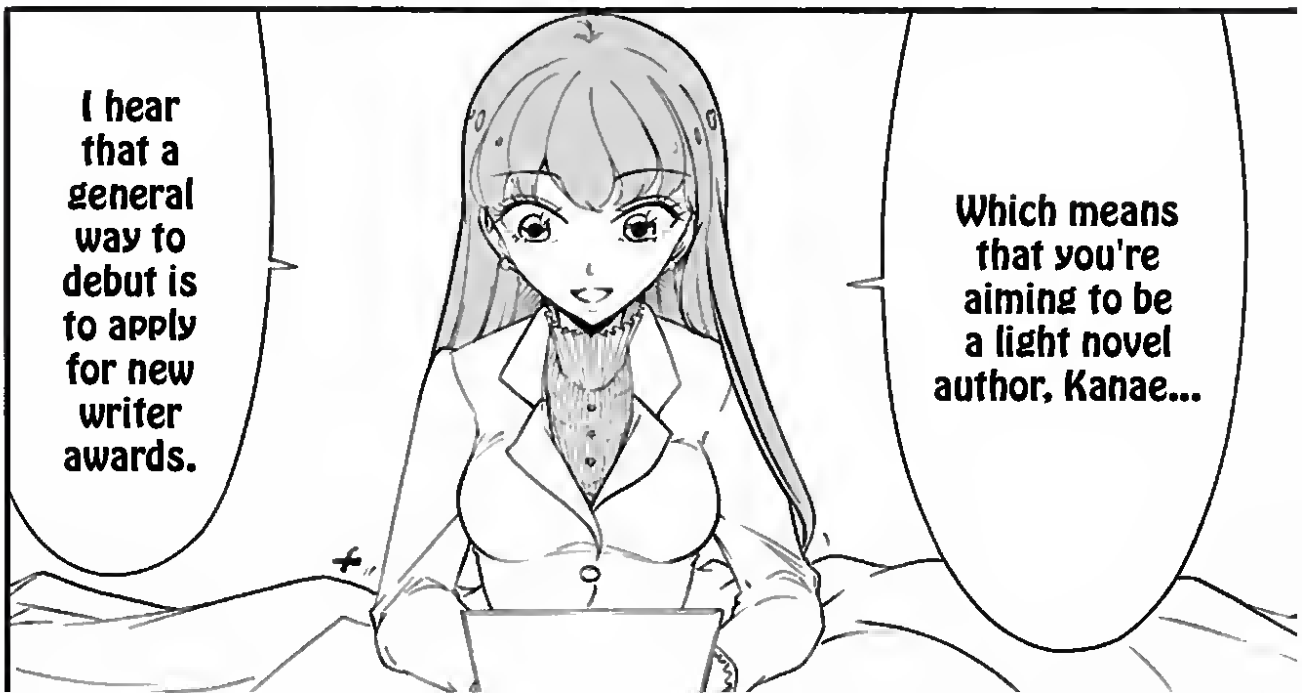
Of course I was serious. I looked up a lot of things while you were sleeping, Kanae.

Huh? W- were you serious about yesterday?
Rather than aiming to be a novelist from now on,
it's necessary to turn your life around.

Light novels
The Incident Where I, A Shut In, First Got Serious In Another World
Y- yeah...
The one you were reading and ripped off, Kanae, falls under light novels.

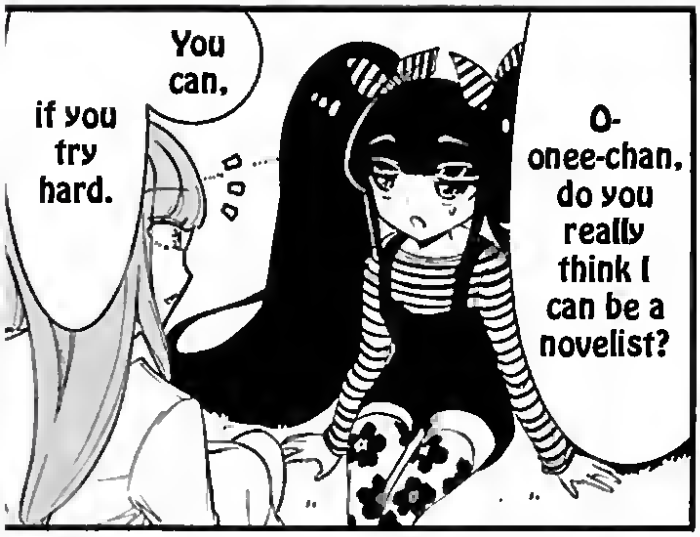


Pure literature
Akutagawa Prize winner
Popular literature
Mystery
Naoki Award winner
First off, there are many kinds of novels, like pure literature, popular literature, and light novels.

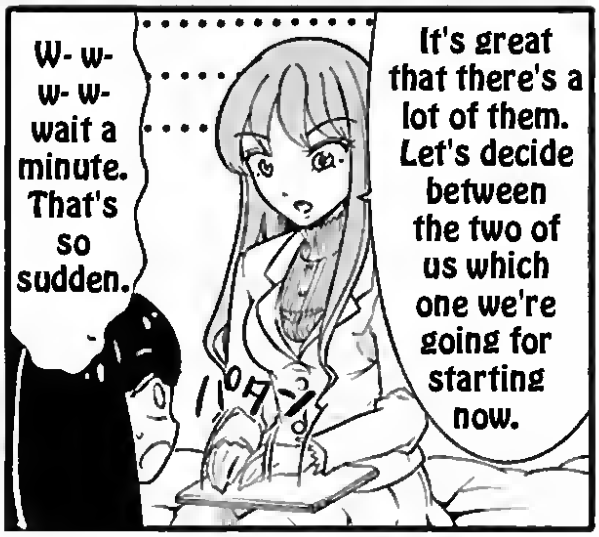


I hear that a general way to debut is to apply for new writer awards.
Which means that you're aiming to be a light novel author, Kanae...

Fantasy Award
Overdrive Bunko Award
GA Bunko Award
HB Bunko Award
Sanjin Bunko Award
Raigeki Award
Snicker Award
Elementary Light Novel Award
World Company Fictions New Writer Award
Become An Author Award
These are the ones I found from a simple search.



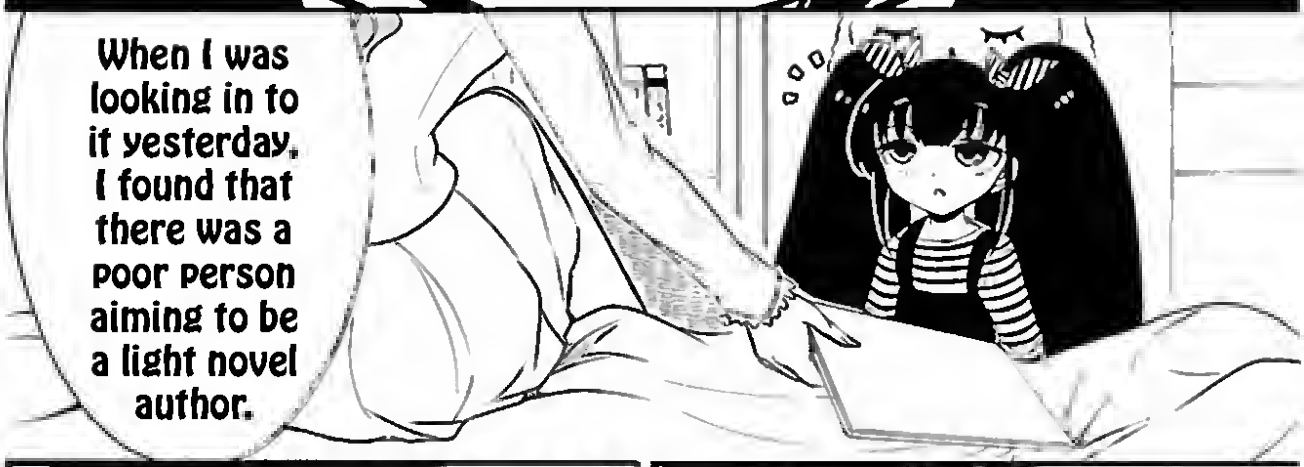
You can, if you try hard.
O-onee-chan, do you really think I can be a novelist?



W-w-w-w-wait a minute. That's so sudden.
It's great that there's a lot of them. Let's decide between the two of us which one we're going for starting now.

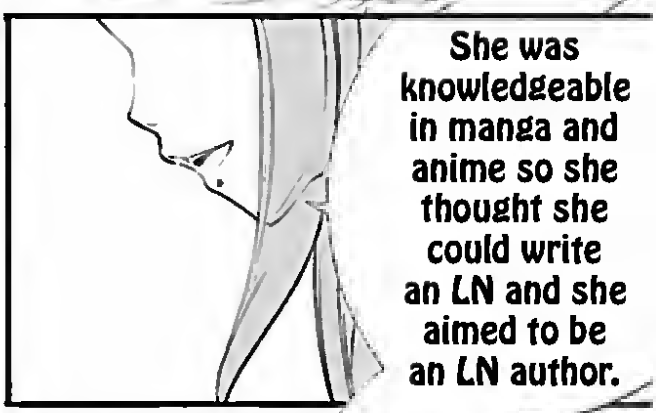
Onei-chan, I'll definitely be betraying your expectations.
You already betrayed me with your rip off novel.
No, you probably won't pass the welfare investigation.
In the future, I'll be receiving welfare.
I'm sort of a pathetic human.
You realized it, but you're sorta not.

Can someone like me even aim for and become one?

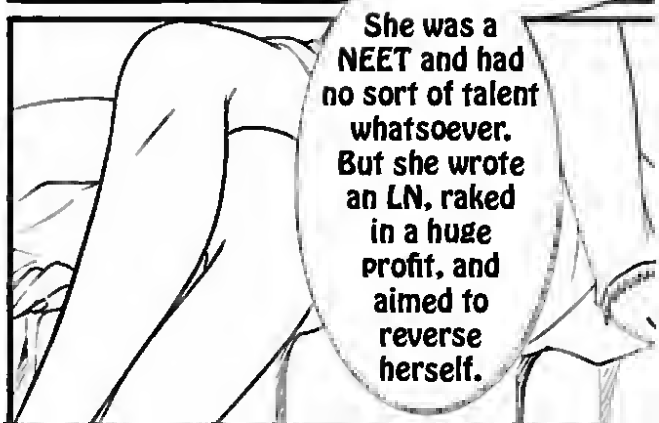


When I was looking in to it yesterday, I found that there was a poor person aiming to be a light novel author.

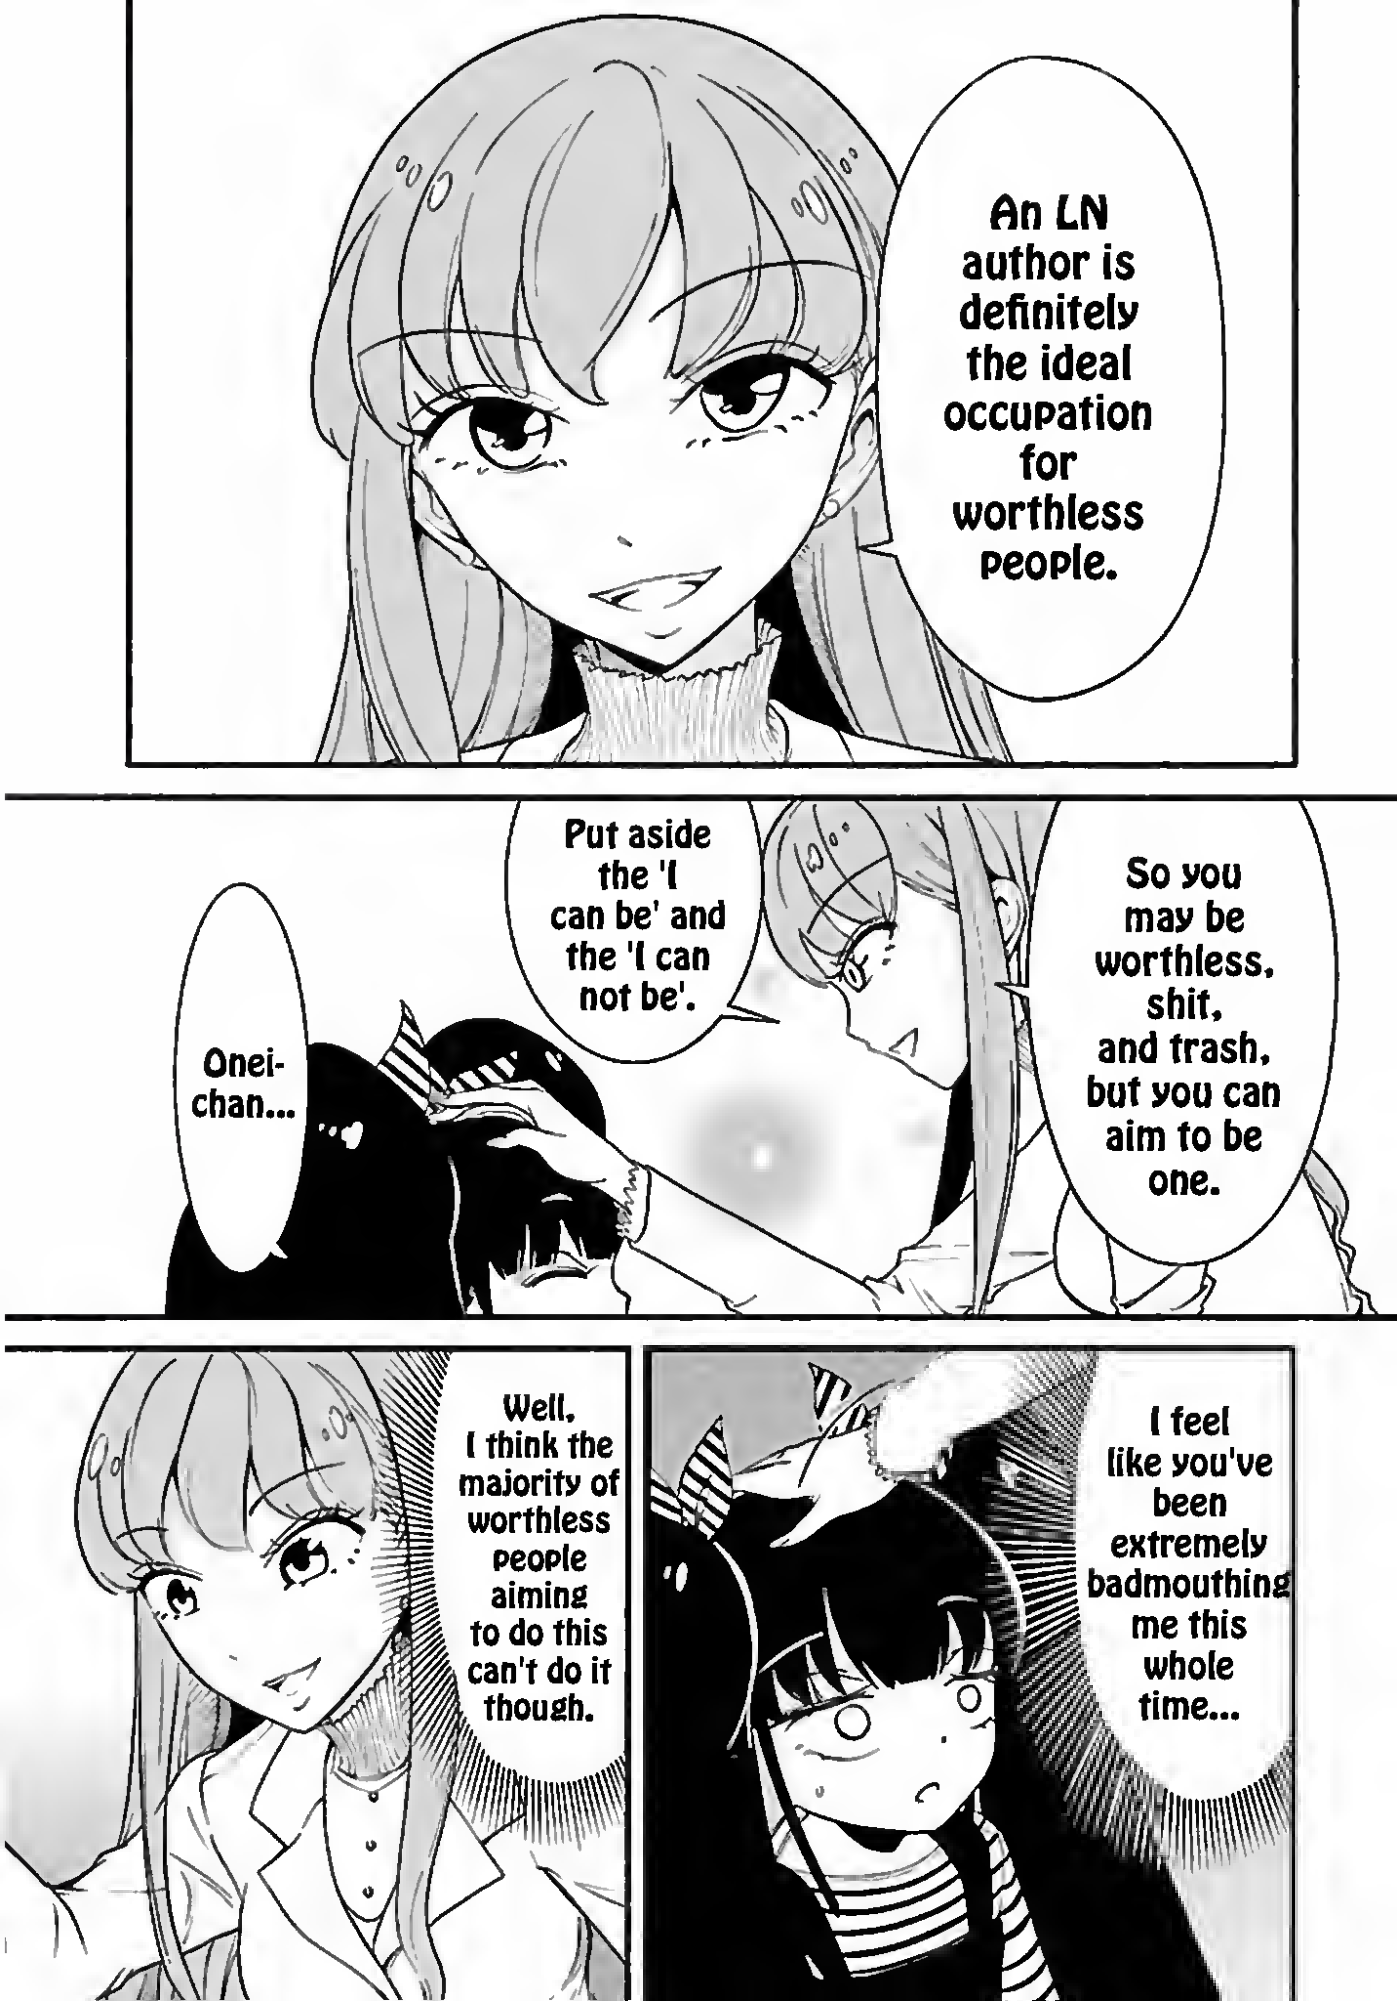
My little sister.
And this person was a shut in, did nothing but play games, and had no talent, but she wanted to be an LN author.



She was knowledgeable in manga and anime so she thought she could write an LN and she aimed to be an LN author.



She was a NEET and had no sort of talent whatsoever. But she wrote an LN, raked in a huge profit, and aimed to reverse herself.



An LN author is definitely the ideal occupation for worthless people.
Onei-chan...
Put aside the 'I can be' and the 'I can not be'.
So you may be worthless, shit, and trash, but you can aim to be one.
Well, I think the majority of worthless people aiming to do this can't do it though.
I feel like you've been extremely badmouthing me this whole time...

I wonder if I can even be one...

Wanna go into Kanae's room?
What's wrong, Nyaago?

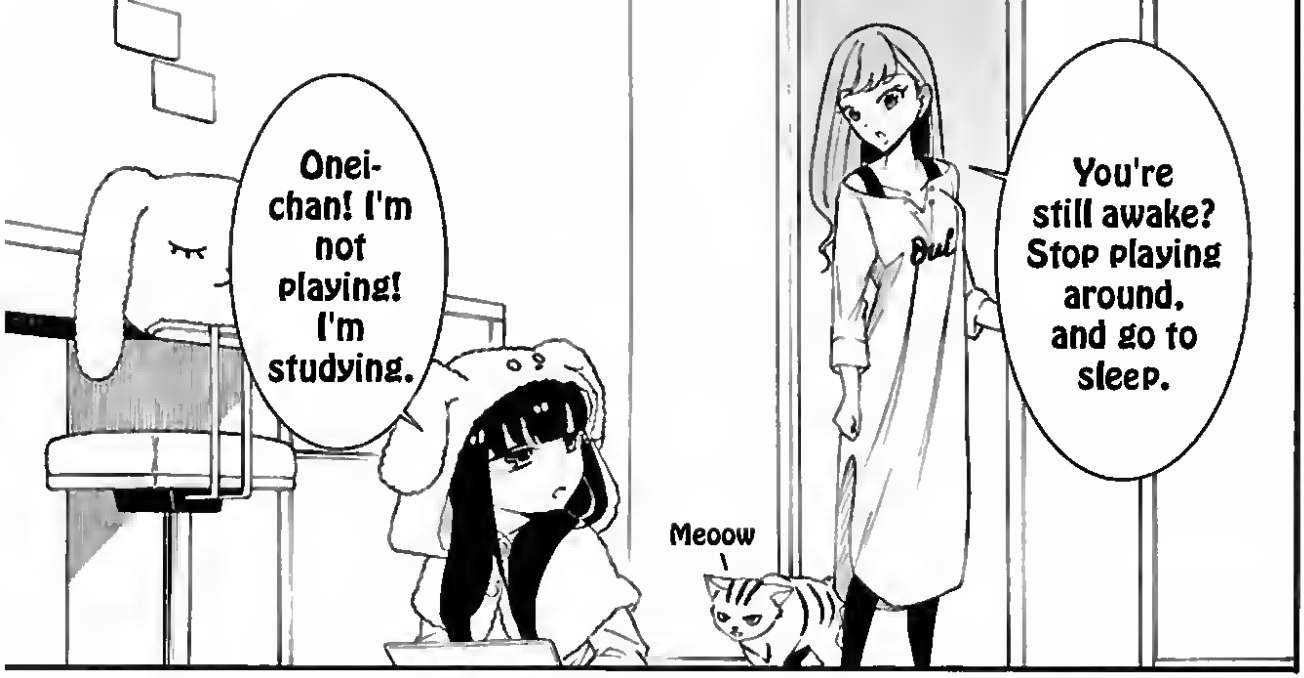
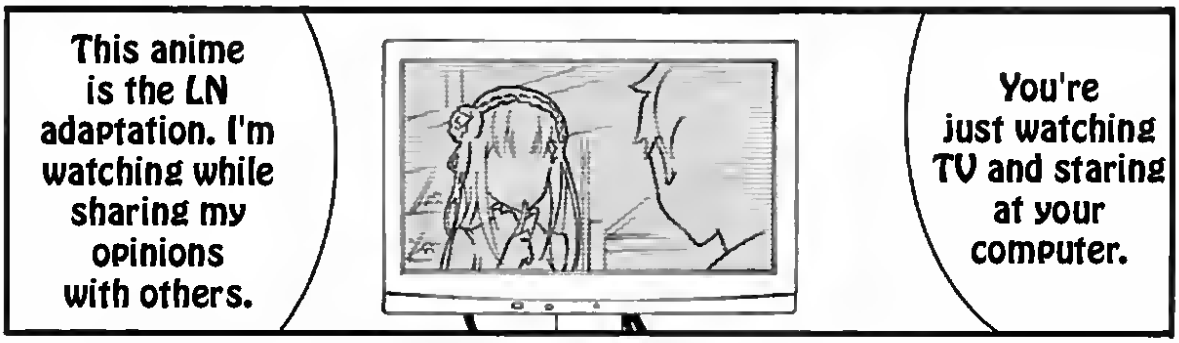
Yawn...
Oui

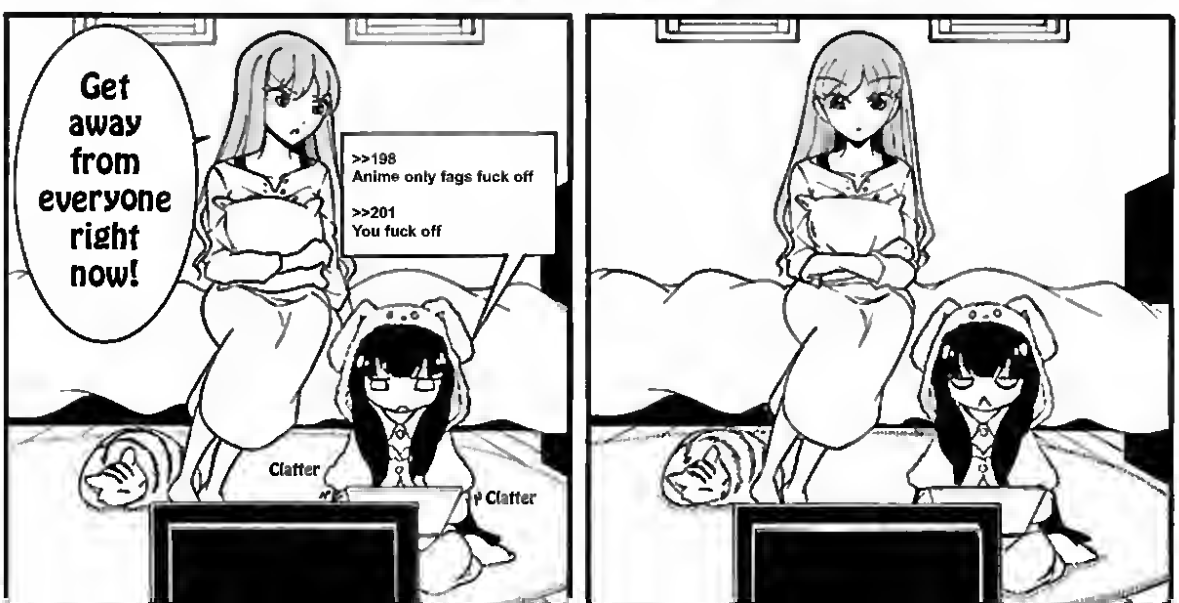


Onei-chan! I'm not playing! I'm studying.
You're still awake? Stop playing around, and go to sleep.
Meoow



This anime is the LN adaptation. I'm watching while sharing my opinions with others.
You're just watching TV and staring at your computer.

So I'm watching while covering the anime live with everyone and learning different viewpoints.
I have to do something, even if it's so little.
You studied so hard and became knowledgeable for my sake, Onei-chan.



Get away from everyone right now!
